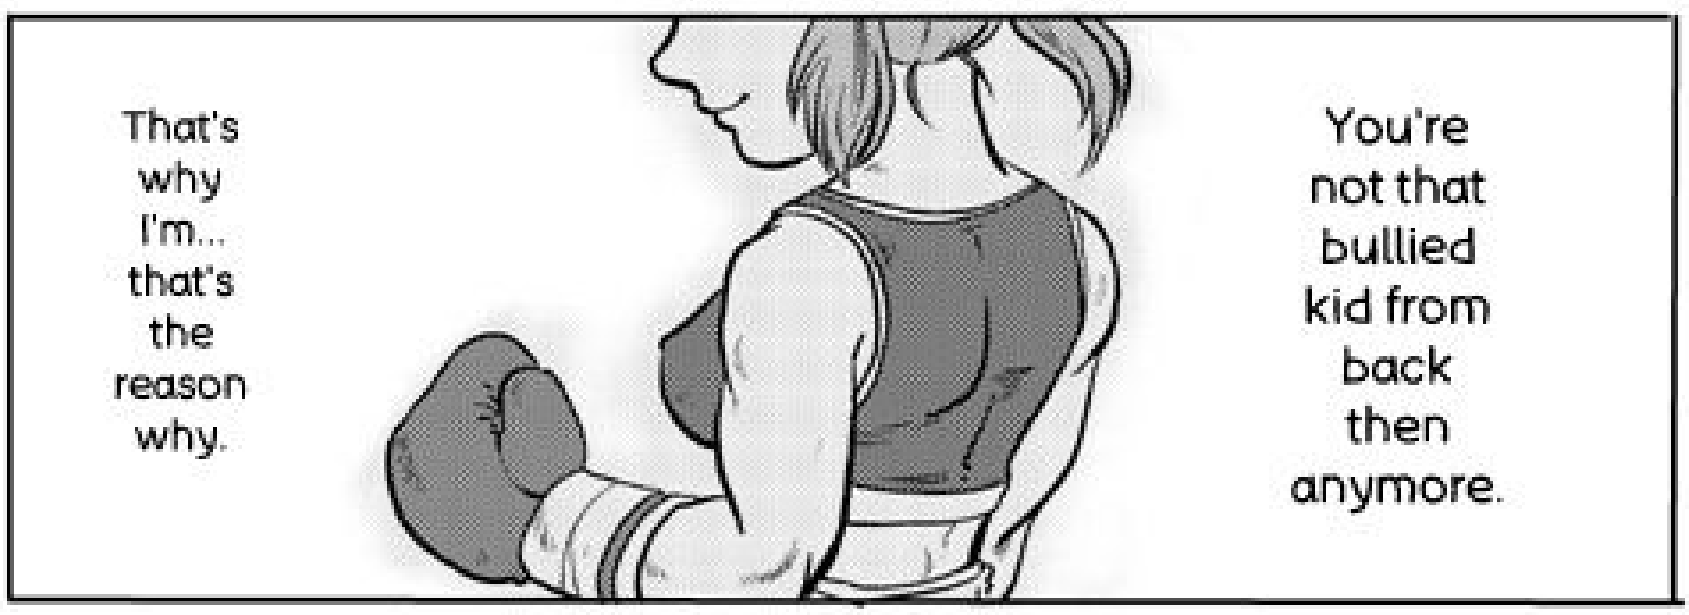
Back then, you were the one getting bullied.

That's why, back then, it was me who suggested boxing to you, saying, "Let's get strong together."

Maybe you had talent all along. You improved rapidly and became a star athlete in no time.



That's why I'm... that's the reason why.
You're not that bullied kid from back then anymore.

The prize money is good, too, you know.

Ah... of course you would. Because you're the one I... acknowledged... the one I love so much.

So you knew, Senpai... that I...

That I wanted to do this to you, Senpai...
